KPMG’s visit to School of Mathematics, University of Leeds

9 November 2010 (Tuesday), 10:30 – 13:00

Contact person: Prof Klaus R Schenk-Hoppé (mobile: 077577 38398)

10:30-10:45 Arrival
Reception, School of Mathematics (plan overleaf)
please ask for Prof Klaus R Schenk-Hoppé (office 9.22c)

Until 11:00 Coffee/Tea in Common room, School of Mathematics

11:05-12:00 KPMG’s presentation “KPMG – Insights into Pensions & Actuarial Practice and Employment Opportunities –“
led by KPMG Leeds Principal Actuary Mike Shimwell
Roger Stevens Lecture Theatre 17

12:00-13:00 Get-together with students. Drinks and snacks.
KPMG Leeds Principal Actuary Mike Shimwell and 6-7 KPMG staff
Foyer on level 9, School of Mathematics

13:00 Departure

Audience: 70-120 students, mostly from programmes offered by the School of Mathematics in collaboration with Leeds University Business School: BSc Mathematics with Finance, BSc Actuarial Mathematics, MSc Financial Mathematics as well as joint honours programmes (Economics & Mathematics, Management & Mathematics). BSc/MM Mathematics students will also be invited.

Members of staff, in particular those teaching on the finance/actuarial programmes.